Our expedition is: “Seize the Season: Autumn"

Belonging

“This is essential to children's happiness and wellbeing, shaping children’s sense of who they are and who they can become”

This term the children will:

- Become independent with their coat, shoes and socks
- Recognise their name and some sounds within

Communication

“Children acquire and develop skills at different rates, and we can support their language development by modelling active listening and speaking for different purposes”

This term the children will:

- Join in with stories and rhymes in preparation for upcoming events

Exploration

“Children’s natural curiosity about the world around them is a strong motivator for

This term the children will:

- Work on ordering and recognising numbers
- Use their senses to explore the world around them during our outdoor day

Physical Development

“All children have a natural need to move, or be moved, and to move or manipulate objects”

This term the children will:

- Coordinate my movements and maintain balance during weekly PE sessions

Well-being

“Feeling connected, secure and safe are key elements to developing a strong sense of well-being”

This term the children will:

- Interact with others
- Take turns and share

To support your child at home you could…

Encourage your child to listen to and identify the sounds around them e.g. bird song, traffic noises and sirens

Practice identifying their name & sounds within

Encourage your child to practice dressing and undressing themselves so that they are confident to do this at school independently. This includes shoes and socks.

Encourage running, jumping, skipping and hopping when out and about.
